Most American children and children the world over are crazy about this cartoon character called Mister Jelly Ears. And who can blame them? Children always love lively characters and colourful outfits.

With his red and green suit, Mr Jelly Ears is one of the most recognizable and popular figures today. He first appeared in an animated series two years ago, when an American television network decided to create this new programme. This has proven to be a really good decision as the show is watched by millions of viewers every week.

In some episodes, Mister Jelly Ears is also accompanied by his best friend, John The Martian, a rather short, yellowish three-eyed creature, and they work together in order to solve some mysteries in Rajgaard, the town they now live in. Because of its big success, a new season will be launched next year, with many other characters expected to join the protagonists.
